Dance Educator Job Posting

Passionate Dance Instructor

‘Empower, then educate.’

The studio is meant to be a second-home for all ages. A place students can be totally themselves, feel supported to try and even fail, set huge goals, work hard, and learn life long skills and professionalism to take with them for future endeavours. Excellence of technique and mindset is what the studio stands on. We create professional dancers with strong mindsets so they can conquer any of life’s challenges.

Being apart of the studio allows dancers to find confidence in themselves by connecting them deeper to their own uniqueness and to a community of like-minded creatives. Our teachers must be passionate and role model by being the best version of themselves they can be.

We are looking for exceptional people to join our team as Arrow Dance Studio in Castlegar BC. In this role you will work in a dedicated team of performing arts educators to deliver our programs to students age 3 to 99.

We seek empowered teachers of dance who are passionate about the transformational benefits of dance education and desire to learn, teach, perform and grow within our walls.

In this role you will:

- Inspire all ages by teaching weekly dance classes.
- Choreograph dances to attend competition, community events, and live performance.
- Prepare class lessons and materials.
- Contribute passionately to biweekly team trainings.
- Attend and engage fully in our annual Team Retreat.
- Passionately continue to learn technique, mindset, and how to be your best you.
- Train and perform regularly as a student at the studio and on ‘outside’ trainings.

Attributes for Success

We are seeking a team member who wholeheartedly believes that dance can change lives.

To be successful in this role you must demonstrate that you have:

- A true desire to make a real impact. You adore working with people and find no greater pleasure than helping to develop their confidence and life skills. You understand that learning occurs best when students are having fun with their teacher and their class.
- A desire for ongoing learning. You desire to know what psychological, social and physical stage students are at and develop curriculum according to their developmental needs.
- A natural and welcoming approach to forming relationships with parents. You are warm, approachable and confident when speaking with parents. They respect your ability to communicate with ease and make them feel part of the studio family.
- An efficient and organised work ethic. You love nothing more than to be over-prepared and organised for your classes. You understand that excellent preparation opens the door for creativity and spontaneity in the moment.
- A passion for bringing out the best in every single student. Each student is unique and you help them to see their uniqueness as a gift.
- Boundless energy. You are able to leave your own agenda at the door and enter every class with a fresh sense of excitement and fun. Your students feed off your exuberance and mirror it back to you in full.
- Commitment to the Team. Our team is the core of everything that happens at Arrow Dance Studio. You are generous, creative and caring towards your fellow team members which uplifts the entire studio. You take responsibility for your needs and communicate them clearly and kindly often.
